HSCA STATEMENT ON APPOINTMENT OF SUPPLY CHAIN VETERAN TODD EBERT AS INTERIM PRESIDENT AND CEO

Incoming Executive Brings More Than 40 Years of Healthcare Expertise to Washington as Chief Advocate for the Healthcare Supply Chain Industry

Washington, DC (July 12, 2021) – Healthcare Supply Chain Association (HSCA) Board Chair and Vizient President and Chief Operating Officer Bharat Sundaram today released the following statement regarding the hiring of supply chain veteran and former HSCA CEO Todd Ebert as the Interim President and CEO of HSCA:

"HSCA and its member group purchasing organizations (GPOs) are proud to welcome Todd Ebert as the interim President and CEO of HSCA. Throughout his 40+ year career – first as a pharmacist, then as the CEO of a leading GPO, and ultimately as President and CEO of HSCA – Todd Ebert has been a leading and deeply respected voice in healthcare. The entire supply chain will benefit from Todd's leadership, clarity of vision, and wealth of healthcare industry expertise, and we are thrilled to have Todd at the organization's helm through this next chapter.

"We are grateful to outgoing president Khatereh Calleja for shepherding HSCA through an unprecedented time in healthcare and advancing the organization's position as a health policy leader and supply chain resource in Washington."

About the Healthcare Supply Chain Association (HSCA)

The Healthcare Supply Chain Association (HSCA) represents the nation's leading healthcare group purchasing organizations (GPOs), which are critical cost-savings partners to America's hospitals, nursing homes, nursing home pharmacies, clinics, home healthcare providers and surgery centers. GPOs deliver billions in savings annually to healthcare providers, Medicare and Medicaid, and taxpayers. HSCA and its member GPOs are committed to delivering the best products at the best value to healthcare providers, to increasing competition and innovation in the market, and to being supply chain leaders in transparency and accountability.
